Let's Give the REPUBLICAN PARTY a Shot in the Arm With New, Young, Strong, Vigorous Blood

HOWES MEADE IS WHAT WE NEED For Full and Complete Victory

HOWES MEADE IS THIRTY-FOUR YEARS OF AGE. THE COUNTRY IS IN NEED OF STRONG, YOUNG LEADERSHIP.

Howes Meade is the only qualified lawyer seeking the nomination. A lawyer is needed in this lawmaking body. Howes Meade is the only veteran of World War II seeking the office. He alone feels for his fellow veterans. He alone knows what the fathers, mothers and wives had to endure because every male member of his family served overseas at the same time.

Howes Meade is the only true friend of the Laboring Man. His father was a member of the United Mine Workers of America. Labor knows that it needs friends in Congress. Labor must start now with a friend and follow through in November.

Howes Meade is the only cattle trader and farmer seeking the office. He alone can know the needs of the farmers. Howes Meade is the only candidate who set foot on foreign soil during our terrible war. Future peace can best be assured by having a man who knows foreign lands first hand.

Howes Meade can and will make the "Fightingest" and best candidate in November. He furnishes the Republican Party with the new blood it needs.

Farmer's Round-up Meeting

One of the biggest events of Letcher County is the Farmer's Round-up Meeting. This event will take place at John D. Huff's farm on Linefork Sunday, July 14. People planning to attend should take their dinners and plan to stay all day. The best way to get to Mr. Huff's farm from Whitesburg is through Roxana and up King's Creek. This road was in good shape when the writer last traveled it which was last week.

4-H Camp To Be Held July 29-Aug. 2.

Attention all 4-H Club members and Leaders! It is now time for us to make plans for camp. Each club should select the 4-H members to go to camp that have done the best work the past year, and have their project completed or up-to-date. Camp will be held in Quicksand. We will be allowed 50 4-H members from Letcher County to attend camp. Just as soon as your leader sends in the names of the members that get to go to camp to the County Agent's office we will write you giving all the details that you need to know in order to get ready for camp. If you haven't finished your project, you should do so at once.

—Corbett Lovely, County Agent.

Bennett Trent

On June 27, 1946, Bennett Trent departed this life at the tipple of the coal mines where he was employed at Mayking, Ky. He was attempting to do his duty faithfully, regardless of the danger to himself and in doing so was tragically killed.

Bennett was the son of Mrs. Mary Trent of Whitco, Ky., and was born on May 27, 1922, being 24 years, and one month of age at time of his death.

He was a veteran of World War II and had a splendid record. He entered the U. S. Army in 1940 and served until November, 1945. He spent two years and ten months in foreign service and for his bravery and accomplishments was awarded the Purple Heart medal, the Victory Medal and several other medals of honor.

He was married on June 8, 1946 to Emogene Hollan. This happy union was full of hope and dreams of a promising and prosperous future. Bennett had many happy plans he was working so hard on for his and Emogene's future together. But God saw fit to take him home.

He is survived by the bereaved widow, his mother, Mrs. Mary Trent, his stepfather, Clyde Trent, and several brothers and sisters.

Bennett was a boy that everybody liked. He had a jovial, happy disposition and at anything he attempted to do he did his best. He liked to work and was ambitious and industrious. His sudden death has been a sad shock to his family and many friends.

Bennett fought his battles bravely; he paid the debt we all have to pay. May God bless and comfort his loved ones in this hour of trial and grief.

Funeral services were held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Trent, Whitco, Ky. on Saturday, June 29, 1946, at 2:00 P. M. o'clock with Elder Kirby Ison and Rev. James Scott, officiating.

Burial in the Family Lot of the Whitco Cemetery with American Legion and Veterans of World War II in charge. Craft Funeral Home in charge of funeral arrangements.

Work Started on Railroad From Jenkins to Pound

On Monday morning, June 24, 1946, work was started on the C & O Railroad that is to go across the Cumberland Mountains from Jenkins to Pound, Va. The work started at the end of Goodwater St., where a road was built into the Mountains above Goodwater Dam to the portal of the tunnel. The portal will be completed in twenty-six days. Then work will begin on the tunnel which will start in the Kentucky side of the mountains and come out on the Virginia side. Many huge pieces of machinery are being used in the work. The work and huge pieces of machinery are causing much excitement in Jenkins. Each day many spectators view the work. The railroad will be finished by August, 1947.

Farm and Home

Improvement Contest

The Letcher County 4-H Council which is composed of Agricultural and civic leaders are sponsoring a Letcher County Home and Farm Improvement Contest this year.

Valuable prizes will be given at a banquet this fall to those farmers completing and scoring highest. Any farmer and his wife may enter this contest. Contest books can be secured at the County Agent's Office.

The Letcher Home and Farm Improvement Campaign embodies the same principles and practices recommended by the Agricultural Experiment Station for many years—the practices which have proved successful from a farm management standpoint. They are the practices which will strive to make the farm self-sufficient by encouraging the farmer to grow, preserve, and process his own food and feed and insure his incomes thru diversified operations. In addition this contest will promote the mutual relationship of the business man and the farmer for a better and more prosperous County.

4-H Council Holds Quarterly Meeting

The Letcher County 4-H Council met in the County Agent's office Friday night last and made plans for the 4-H and School Fair to be held this fall at Whitesburg. Officers of the Council were chosen for this year. Jesse Holbrook was elected President, Mrs. W. P. Nolan Vice-President and Herman Hale Secretary-Treasurer.

It was decided that the Presidents of the Rotary, Lions and Kiwanis Clubs together with the County Agent meet in Jenkins and Continue the necessary preparation for the fair.

The 4-H Council members present at this meeting were:

Mrs. Forrester Combs, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Goodwin, W. H. Heermans, Dick Evans, Watty Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Holbrook, N. R. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Nolan, Inez Caudill, Coy Holstein, Martha Jane Potter, Dr. Lee Moore, Dr. and Mrs. P. E. Sloan, Walter Enlowe, D. W. Little, Rev. J. S. Robinson, Myrel Brown, Herman Hale.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bowens are the proud parents of twin boys born last Wednesday at their home on Camp Branch. Both the youngsters are doing fine, also the mother, but Carl has not come out of the fog yet.

State Fair To Spend $40,000 to Improve Fair Grounds

Louisville, Ky. — After several weeks of uncertainty, the Kentucky State Fair received the approval of the Civilian Production Administration to spend $40,000 to repair and improve the State Fairgrounds in Louisville.

The first request of the State Fair Board for an okay in the expenditure was turned down but the government agency reversed its decision upon the assurance of the state fair board that no vital material essential to home building would be used.

It was also announced last week by Edward M. Brooks, Assistant Manager, that the famous Calvacade of Amusements would appear at the State Fair this year. The Calvacade is twice as large as any carnival ever to show at the fairgrounds and is bringing a completely modern streamlined exposition to Louisville for the fair.

Interest in the statewide beauty contest to choose a "Miss Kentucky", who will compete at Atlantic City, is growing. Commissioner of Agriculture, Elliott Robertson, has sent a letter to all the county seat newspaper editors asking their cooperation in choosing a representative from their respective communities.

Circuit Court Now In Session

Circuit Court convened on last Monday with Judge R. Monroe Fields presiding as usual and assisted by Commonwealth's Attorney J. A. Runyon and County Attorney Burley W. Hale. There is nothing very exciting coming up this court at this writing. The Grand Jury is in session this week for investigating the conditions of crime in the county.

Letcher County Veteran Group Meets

Representatives of public agencies, civic and business groups interested in extending community services to veterans met at U. S. Employment Service office in Whitesburg Monday afternoon in a round table discussion of problems confronting the community in aiding veterans.

Mr. Walter D. Fulton, veterans administration contact representative briefly discussed the services of the veterans administration stressing the need for informed community groups to help carry the load and extend all services.

Eugene E. Day, local manager of the U. S. Employment Service discussed the services available through the USES stressing the factors favorable to veterans and employees and the need for community backing in making available to veterans employment opportunities.

It was decided to make available in public places a community informational directory in order that all veterans might be more efficiently served. Plans were made for meeting in the future to discuss more specific problems.

NEWS in the WORLD of RELIGION

BY W. M. REID

Foreign missionaries of the Methodist Church, in America on regular furloughs or detained from their fields because of war and post-war conditions, but expecting to return overseas within the next year, have issued a "call" to the young people of the denomination for recruits as doctors, nurses, ministers, teachers, evangelists. "The church needs you," they say. "Methodism is a worldwide fellowship of witnesses. There is a place for every kind of worker of all races. The church needs young people trained and ready to work now. In no country is there an adequate missionary staff. The younger churches await you. Methodism's Board of Missions and Church Extension (150 Fifth Ave., New York 11, N. Y.) is seeking more than 400 young college people, married and unmarried, for all types of missionary service. A special appeal is being made to veterans who have seen the church in action in the war areas.

Bishop Willis J. King, American Negro bishop of the Methodist Church in charge of the denomination's services in the Republic of Liberia, Africa, is visiting Negro churches in this country urging the race's youth to volunteer for missionary service in Africa. They are needed in the fields of education, evangelism, medicine and social service, he says, urging them to join in a "dynamic Christian organization to carry light to the enslaved regions of the world." According to the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church, Negro missionaries would be welcomed in some of the European-controlled colonies of Africa as well as in Liberia.

During the last half of 1946, the sum of $15,000,000 will be needed for the share which American Protestantism plans to take in the relief of stricken peoples in Europe and in Asia, according to Dr. A. L. Warnshuis, executive head of Church World Service—the coordinating agency of all Protestant church relief. The money will be about evenly divided between Europe and Asia; and will be used for food, clothing, and medical supplies and care for the needy, as well as for undergirding church and community services. The Asiatic countries to be aided include India, the Philippines, Siam, Burma, Korea, Japan, Indonesia, and Malaya. All of Europe's war-torn countries are in the list to be aided.

Four leaders of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. are now in Europe studying conditions among Protestant churches and planning the establishment—either by Presbyterians or in conjunction with other churches—of several theological seminaries for the training of young evangelical ministers. The "free churches" lost hundreds of ministers on both sides of the recent World War, and this is part of a plan to reestablish the church and its leadership. The Presbyterian group includes: Dr. Lester H. Clee, of Newark, N. J.; George M. Kirk, of Pueblo, Colo.; Mrs. Albert G. Parker, Jr., of Hanover, Ind.; and Dr. F. Paul McConkey, of Seattle, Wash.

Plans are under way for a meeting in Oslo, Norway, in the summer of 1947, of a "World Christian Youth Conference," to which practically every Protestant Christian church in the world will send some of its leading young people. The last such conference was held just before the outbreak of the war in Europe. Notable in the conference will be the increased number of representatives of the churches to which Europe and America have been sending missionaries for more than a century.

Emphasizing that the problem between labor and management is in its essence a moral issue, Kermit Eby, a former minister of the United Brethren Church and now "director of education and research for the C. I. O., in Washington, D. C., recently challenged leaders of the major Protestant denominations, gathered in conference at Lake Geneva, Wis., to "help in solving these issues by training Christian leaders in problems of both labor and management." He urged for ministers courses on the subject in theological seminaries; and for laymen an understanding through discussions in the churches and in church organizations.

Establishing a precedent within the Methodist Church (and possibly within Protestantism), Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, of New York, has appointed two Methodist ministers as "Chaplains to Organized Labor." One of these young ministers, the Rev. Charles C. Webber, well-known in the field of religious social service, is now president of the Virginia C. I. O.; and the other, the Rev. Nelson H. Cruickshank, formerly with the War Manpower Commission, is social insurance analyst for the A. F. of L. in Washington, D. C.

THE SILENT HOUR

I like to steal away alone
To some cool, shady bower,
And leave life's worries all behind
For one quiet peaceful hour.

I like to leave all noise and care
And go away alone
To enjoy stillness, calm and sweet,
A stillness all my own.

The quiet hour has a charm
It means so much to me
If I can leave all cares behind
And in deep silence be.

When life seems too much for me,
I seek some silent place,
A silent hour, calm and still,
Life's trials all to face.

When cares come crowding,
one by one,
Cares seeming hard to bear,
It is then I need my quiet hour
My silent hour, "Somewhere".

The silent hour so calm, and still
Its solitude so sweet.
No sound except Nature's Voice,
Earth's silence so, complete.

The hermit, in his solitude
With silence, fully blest,
Must be happy and content,
Nought to disturb his rest.

My silent hours along life's way,
Their solitude, complete.
Have helped me through the years,
Life's trials all to meet.

Sweet solitude: dear silent hours;
They mean so much to me
When sweet peace fills my soul,
And I am lost in memories.

My friends, when you are tired and blue,
Bowed down with worldly
care,
You then need, the silent hour,
You will find peace, "Out there."

Far out from worldly noise and strife
One silent hour alone.
Gives me strength life's Cross
to bear,
And in the way press on.

"Behind the Scenes in American Business"

—by John Craddock—

New York, July 1. — With a large number of veterans and a number of former war workers planning to go into business for themselves, the big question facing each is whether success or failure lies at the end of the business rainbow. Dun's Review in their June issue discuss the possibilities of success in new business ventures and suggest certain factors which should be weighed before the new business man risks his or another's capital. The business magazine suggests that costs be determined, the proposed location of the business studied to see whether it has a previous record of failure, whether cash is sufficient and whether the previous experience of the new businessman fits into the proposed field. Agencies which might be consulted include the United States Department of Commerce, the Veterans Administration, the local Committee for Economic Development, banks, chambers of commerce and other business advisory bodies. The study shows that during 1942 and 1943 more than twice as many businesses were discontinued as were started, while in 1944 and 1945 nearly three times as many went into business as were discontinued.

DEPLETION — A cloud has been discerned on the horizon of the bright new day of science in industry by William S. Richardson, president of B. F. Goodrich Chemical Company. The cloud is in the form of "a depleted inventory of trained minds." While there is need, according to Richardson, for a minimum new crop of 10,000 men with degrees in chemistry on this continent annually, reports indicate, he said, that only 1,934 chemists and 462 chemical engineers were actually in training in the United States in 1945. Mr. Richardson said that some companies are recognizing that "we are not doing enough work in this country in the fields of basic science." Part of the facilities of the new research center now being built at a cost of several millions by B. F. Goodrich at Brecksville, Ohio, will be devoted to investigations into pure and fundamental science, he said. He recommended that more money be spent in educational institutions as well as industries to provide the "ivory tower" atmosphere in sufficient degree to act as incubator of new ideas.

THINGS TO COME — A new fireproof ironing-board cover made from cotton... a non-inflammable plastic for use in making children's toys... plastic air-cushions for comfortable seats at football games... a lightweight, non-leakable, easy-to-ship and easy-to-install showerbase made of aluminum... a new spray unit for paint, varnish, lacquer and stain that weighs only eight pounds including air-compressor... a new electronic device which will show you, at a glance, whether or not your auto wheels are in alignment... a vending machine selling 5-cent products which will give you change for a dime or a quarter.

HOME APPLIANCES — A sweeping revision of home appliance merchandising may be in prospect as the result of a new supermarket sales pattern developed in Los Angeles by the May Company. Largest in the nation, the new store assumed sales responsibility for practically all lines of the nation's major appliance manufacturers. No less than 20 washing machine manufacturers, 17 makers of electric irons, nine refrigerator producers are represented in a setting of 12 complete model kitchens with all utilities attached and more than 200 singly displayed items. Even bathroom installation takes a short-cut to the consumer in the streamlined service of a glass installation center in which Libbey-Owens-Ford cooperated with the store. Packaged in a single transaction are complete bathrooms including wiring, heating, plumbing, painting, decorating, as well as glass for walls, mirrored doors and fire places, and newest prefabricated windows. The famous appliance lines are ranged side by side where the consumer can try them all and make her own decision as to the advantages of one make over another.

BITTS O' BUSINESS — Last minute rains have saved the pea pack of Wisconsin which accounts for 30 per cent to 40 per cent of the country's total harvest of peas for canning. Two weeks ago, it looked as though the crop would be unusually short... More clothing should come into the market shortly, but it will be the more expensive type. Elimination of the minimum average price regulation which required manufacturers to sell a certain amount of low priced goods along with higher priced ones will increase the suit supply... Linseed oil from the 1946 flax crop is coming into the market, but in much less volume than required... Next labor unrest is likely to crop out in Hollywood. Ever since Spring there have been sharp differences of opinion there about wages and union jurisdiction... Veterans in the Pittsburgh area have joined forces to do something about the housing shortage. They have commissioned a construction firm to build a three-story brick apartment house for them... Businesses which can't pay high wages are feeling a labor pinch. Example: Laundries in the New York area have only 17,000 workers against a prewar 26,000 and demand for service is up 15 per cent to 20 per cent.

Notes From Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Ellenburg were recent visitors in Washington, D. C., where they were the guests of their son, James, and Miss Jerry E. Malick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Malick, Sr., of Jenkins. They were entertained at the famous and unique Russian "Balalaika", and included in their tour of Washington many fabulous and enchanting points of interest for which Washington is known. James is a medical student at the Bethesda Naval Hospital, and Jerry holds a secretarial position in the War Department.

Miss Claydene Johnson is vacationing in Jenkins where she will spend several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson.

Dr. Alice Freeman, of New Orleans, La., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Malick Sr., and from Jenkins, will proceed to Washington, where she will be the guest of her sister, Miss Jerry Malick.

Mr. Chester Cantrell recently returned to Jenkins from Washington, after several weeks of tedious work at the Veterans Administration. Chester says a month in D. C. is enough for him!

Also in Washington from Jenkins, are Mr. Roy Pratt Wolfe and Mr. Kenneth Conley, who seem to be enjoying the high-spots very much.

Miss "Mooka" Martha Wright, now residing in D. C., is visiting her nephew, Dane Long, who is a recent addition to the U. S. Navy at Bainbridge, Maryland.

Miss Rose Mary Johnson stopped in D. C. on her way to Jenkins from Hood College, to join her old friends from "home" for a few hours.

Robert L. Shockey, of Dunham, was also a visitor in Washington, enroute to Jenkins upon his discharge from the Naval Hospital at Bainbridge, Maryland.

Of all the Kentucky people who have made D. C. their home, Bill Huffman, of McRoberts seems to have made it a two-some by his marriage to Mrs. Grace E. Huffman, of Allentown, Penn. Bill and Grace are ready for a presto take-off to McRoberts as soon as they receive word that Bill's brother, Bud, has arrived safely, from Germany.

I Wonder

I often study and wonder Of that city over yonder If all good people go there When that great day is here.

The Judgment Day When some will go to that city And some the other way Will there be no troubles there No worries, not even a care

Will we meet our loved ones that had to go And left us in sorrow here below

I wonder if they'll be the same As on earth they were blind or lame,

Will they have new bodies, but the same soul, Wonder if they will be young and never grow old I wonder if they'll have wings Harps and beautiful things.

I hope I'll meet you over there In that city so fair This I'll wonder, study, and ponder Till I die and sail over yonder.

Re-organization of Safety Section of Highway Dept.

Frankfort, Ky., June 26 — Believing that the precepts of safety begin at home, re-organization of the safety section of the Kentucky Department of Highways was announced by J. Stephen Watkins, Commissioner, today. Seven inspector posts will be set up in highway districts. The unit will operate directly under the supervision of Thos. H. Cutler, State Highway Engineer, with J. W. Knox, Safety Engineer, directing the program.

"Accidents involving members of our own organization must be reduced," Mr. Watkins said. "Standards of ability are to be set up to prevent employment of men either unqualified or inexperienced. Not only will such a policy save the state money, but it will also save lives."

"The department operates 123 garages with the responsibility for 2983 pieces of mobile equipment. The selecting of safe drivers and the advancement of safety precautions among mechanics and workmen will be an important step toward safety."

"Our men should set an example. Inspectors will carry on educational programs, keep a close check upon the health and physical condition of employees, investigate injuries and accidents within the department and direct better compliance with fire prevention rules."

Men selected to carry on the program are: Roberts S. Caudill, Frankfort; Owen P. Cornelison, Richmond; Joel I. Popplewell, Louisville; Lloyd H. Ramsey, Lexington; John F. Deskins, Pikeville; H. O. Morgan, Berea; John U. Courtney, Lexington.

Navy Takes Wraps Off Newest Irons

Firepower Demonstrated in Ordnance Test.

WASHINGTON.—The navy took the wraps off its newest shooting irons in a demonstration of terrific firepower directed by electronic brains.

The array of guns and rocket launchers put through their paces at the navy ordnance proving ground in nearby Dahlgren, Va., ranged from weapons that saw their first action toward the end of the war to newly developed models still largely in the hush-hush stage.

Pride of the proving grounds appeared to be a three-inch automatic-loading anti-aircraft gun that threw a shell every second; or twice as fast as a hand-loaded gun. Officers said it will be used in both twin and single mounts on shipboard, with radar supplying its firing directions. No photographs of this gun were permitted.

An even more impressive gun, still in the experimental stage and discussed only guardedly by the ordnance officers, was the 3-inch, 70-caliber anti-aircraft gun. It was not fired.

"Its accuracy, rate of fire, effective range and damage effect will be many times greater than that of any anti-aircraft machine gun now known to be in existence," the bureau of ordnance said.

Only ships designed for this gun can mount it, as it will be fed automatically from below decks and have a radar fire control system which will spot enemy planes or missiles, track them, compute corrections and open fire, also automatically.

Discussed, but not demonstrated, was a new rapid-fire turret, claimed to make all present turrets obsolete. It houses three eight-inch guns which are automatically loaded, directed and fired, without a man in the turret.

Police See Him Pick Locks in Good Cause

NEW YORK, N. Y. — The state resorted to lock picking one night to gain entry to 37 apartments in a resort hotel at Long Beach seized under the state emergency housing act to provide shelter for persons made homeless by a recent fire.

When Pauline Goldman, manager of the President hotel apartments, refused to give Walter Van Nostrand, representative of the state division of housing, the keys to the apartments, Van Nostrand summoned Abe Kupchick, 64-year-old locksmith.

Kupchick removed the locks and replaced them with new ones. Miss Goldman called police, but the police said state authorities had proper authorization papers and remained to watch Kupchick work.

Five families were housed late that night, and nine others assigned.

Kupchick said this was "certainly something new for me—a wholesale lockpicking job, with the government looking on."

Uniforms to Fit G.I.s Is Latest Note in Fashions

WASHINGTON.—Pin back your ears, supply sergeants, and listen to the secretary of war.

He says no more of this business of outfitting a size 36 sad sack in a size 42 uniform, or draping a fly-weight G.I. in an overcoat that would do Goering.

From now on, Secretary Patterson ordered, the army man is to be a trim, well-tailored soldier, with a uniform of the proper size. That goes not only for rookies getting their first government issue, but also for men already in service who haven't been done right by in the natty clothing line.

And the old stall about not having the proper sizes in stock is no go. Patterson says in that event one of the outfits on hand must be altered to fit.

Russia Will End Bread Rations in the Autumn

LONDON.—Bread, flour and macaroni will come off the list of rationed foods in Russia in the autumn and it is intended to cancel the entire ration system next year, the Moscow radio stated. More than 3,200 food factories destroyed during the war now have been restored.

Two hundred new food processing factories, including sugar refineries and canneries, soon will be in full production in White Russia, the broadcast added.

The broadcaster said Kazakhstan expects to process a record-breaking 300,000 tons of sugar this year.

'Take It Easy,' Motor Drivers Are Warned

WASHINGTON. — "Motorists—take it easy."

The American Automobile association put forth this slogan to cut accidents. It will be proclaimed on stickers, leaflets and posters.

The association made public a letter from President Truman commending the program. He wrote that it is "well designed to focus attention on the importance of the responsibility of the individual."

The following officers were installed by the Immediate Past President, Dick Evans, who briefly outlined the duties of each officer for the benefit of the members present that they might know what to expect of the newly elected officers. He also reminded each member present that they owed their officers full whole-hearted co-operation.

The officers to serve for the coming year are, Dr. Lee Moore, Pres.; Troy W. Frazier, 1st Vice-Pres.; Carl Breeding, 2nd Vice Pres.; Orville Hughes, 3rd Vice Pres.; Burley Hale, Treasurer; Maurice Lewis, Secretary; J. B. Polly, Cecil Webb, L. B. Goodwin and B. Dave Blair, Directors. Jim Bentley, Lion Tamer and J. Follace Fields, Tail Twister.

ELECTRICITY WORKS FOR PEANUTS!

AND if you aren't up on today's expressive slang, peanuts means a very small amount of money. Like your electric bill. It really is peanuts, isn't it—compared to most other items in your family budget?

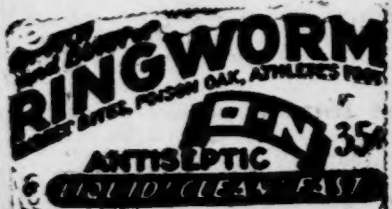

While the cost of most things climbed through the years—the price of electric service kept right on going down. Even in wartime, when practically all prices popped up, electricity actually became a few peanuts cheaper.

As a matter of fact, the average American family gets twice as much electricity for its money today as it did 20 years ago!

All of this goes to prove an important point. Sound business management—and experienced employees—together have given the American people dependable, low-priced electric service—the best and the most in the world! You'll enjoy that service even more in the electric years ahead.

INSIDE OF SPORTS

(by Elmo Parrish)

Hello Fans—

Well, baseball seems to be in the limelight and the ole boy has been seeing some of the home games of the Jenkins team—the last ones being the double-bill that the Jenkins team split with the Middles-boro Club. The first one going to Middlesboro to the tune of 8-3 and the second to Jenkins 2-1—the latter being won by home runs from the bats of "Red" Horner and Frank Roberts as well as the masterful pitching of the Ivan Brush.

The first game was a very poor exhibition of management on the part of the Jenkins team. I am not saying that they should have won the game—because they were playing one of the finest ball clubs in this part of the country—but they certainly had the opportunities to make it a better game and perhaps a win for Gene Brown. The baseball fans deserve a better fate than to see this team (they are definitely a better team than the records show) so low in the standings of the Lonesome Pine League.

I made the statement that there was bad management in Jenkins last Saturday—so now for some proof—the first example was the line-up—Every baseball fan knows that the 4th man in the batting order, the cleanup man, should be the best hitter on the team or at least a long or consistent hitter—but what did we have in the cleanup slot for Jenkins? probably the weakest hitter on the team. Some people say that means very little—but there was an instance in that game that a good hitter in that spot could have done a lot to save the game—
namely the bases Loaded (with the first 3 men in the batting order) and all this batter could do was get a slow roller to 3rd base.

The second example—this one came up twice—two men on base—first and second with nobody out. Instead of sacrificing these men into scoring position—the manager gives the sign to hit—what happens?
a double play in each instance.
This double killing not only knocks an extra base runner out but also knocks the morale of a good team.

This isn't by any means a gripe sheet—nor am I making excuses for a loss of a ball game, but merely stating facts —facts obvious to every fan in the Jenkins Park last Saturday. Follow the schedules and I'll see you at the ball game.

Lost In Whitesburg

Mrs. Gladys Basye of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Evelyn Looney of Cincinnati, Ohio, daughters of Mr. H. G. Franklin, were born and raised in Letcher County, but have been away for some time, came back on a visit and got lost in Whitesburg. Gladys says, "I go all over Los Angeles and never get lost. I guess it just had to be Whitesburg. We got off the train and took the wrong way. We ran into the night police and asked, "Can you tell us what street we are on and show us where we can get a Cab." "We both made up our minds not to tell it, but it was so funny, we couldn't keep the secret."

Army Hangs On to Its G. I. Trucks*Equipment Veterans Have Wanted Not Available.

WASHINGTON.—Where are all the surplus G. I. cars and trucks that veterans want?

There are two slants to the question, plus considerable uncertainty over just how interested the veterans are in some of the equipment.

War department spokesmen explain the slow movement of automotive surplus to market this way:

(a) The army is holding on to all vehicles deemed necessary to its needs until July 1, 1949—more than three years hence.

(b) The army isn't exactly sure how many cars it has.

The War Assets administration, which sells the vehicles, sizes up the situation as follows:

(a) The cars and trucks cannot be offered to veterans until the army declares them surplus. Many have not been so declared.

(b) WAA hopes to get more soon, including big stocks from Texarkana, Texas, for example, where the army has 32,000 vehicles at its repair depot.

(c) WAA needs 70 days, on the average, to get a car ready for sale to a veteran after it gets the vehicle from the army.

But oddly, veterans aren't buying some vehicles—notably the 2½-ton trucks reserved exclusively for them—in anywhere near the expected numbers. Some of these trucks are going begging for buyers.

Body of 'Stranger' at Rest After 30 Years

SAPULPA, OKLA. — The body of an unidentified man finally has been buried after an undertaker apparently had waited 30 years for someone to claim it.

A Christian funeral service was conducted recently after the body had been discovered in an old funeral parlor which recently changed hands.

Harold Rampp found the body after purchasing the late Bert Buffington's funeral parlor, which had been closed for several years.

No one in this city of 12,499 could give a clue as to the man's identity, but Creek county Attorney G. B. Coryell found in his files the death record of an unidentified man who died, apparently of pneumonia, on a railroad right-of-way in 1916.

Rampp said Buffington had been noted for his skillful embalming technique, which accounted for the "good condition" of the body. He said he believed Buffington had received legal permission to keep the body for study and to instruct student embalmers.

3,000 Miles of Trails Planned in California

SAN FRANCISCO.—Without dissent, the California legislature has authorized spending $300,000 to start work on a 3,000-mile system of horseback and hiking trails extending in a huge loop from the Mexican border to Oregon and back, via the Sierra foothills and the shores of the Pacific.

The ambitious project will take some 10 years and $2,000,000 to complete. It will lead riders through giant redwood forest, semi-desert and flowered plain, beside trout streams, over foothills of historic gold-rush days, along coastal ridges and sandy beaches.

But for all its modern wrinkles such as automatically closing gates to woo the goodwill of cattlemen and a system of rustic hostels every 20 to 30 miles, principal sponsors of the project contemplate the job with the leisurely air of sportsmen.

Operations for Stomach Removal Good 89 Times

BOSTON, MASS. — Dr. Frank
H. Lahey, director of the Lahey clinic, recently reported 89 successful operations in which the patients' stomachs were removed completely.

Addressing the Massachusetts medical society, Dr. Lahey said the gastrostomies were done to remove cancerous or other growths.

One patient, whose stomach was removed eight years and seven months ago now is alive and well, Dr. Lahey added. He said a "substitute stomach" is provided for these patients through a loop in the intestines.

Dr. Lahey also advised people past middle-age who have indigestion that lasts longer than a week to submit to x-ray examinations because "they may be suffering from ulcers or cancer."

Southern California Is Struck by Food Scare

LOS ANGELES. — A new kind of bread line formed at bread-bar-ren southern California markets.
Grocers and bakers blamed a sudden shortage on panic buying and government flour purchases.

Millers blamed short deliveries on competition from the Federal Commodity Credit Corp., bidding 30 cents a bushel above the market price for wheat to deliver abroad.

RETURN OF WAR DEAD FROM OVERSEAS

The War Department has completed plans for the repatriation of 328,000 World War II deceased military and naval personnel buried outside the United States.

Under the law (Public Law 383, 79th Congress) as administered, families will have the option of: (1) Having the remains returned to the United States for final interment in a National Cemetery near their home. The cost of this will be borne entirely by the Government. (2) Returning the remains to the United States or American territories or possessions for burial by next of kin in a private cemetery. The government will pay $50 toward the local burial expense and bear all costs of shipping the body home. Cremation at government expense is authorized when desired.
(3) Burying the deceased in a permanent American Military Cemetery overseas. (4) Foreign-born American dead also may be buried in a private cemetery in their native land.
Such shipment to a foreign country is dependent upon the ability of the United States to obtain an entry permit.

In addition to service personnel, the return and reburial program applies to American civilians buried overseas since September 3, 1939, who were engaged in war work or whose death was directly the result of war. This includes Government employees, Red Cross workers, War Correspondents and Merchant Marine personnel. They will not be buried in military cemeteries in the United States, however.

Shipment of deceased soldiers and sailors will be in special funeral vessels. Liberty ships, tank carriers, and plane carriers will be adapted for the work. They will be painted white with a wide purple band circling the ship. Upon arrival, the flag-draped seamless steel caskets will be transferred under military escort to thirteen redistribution points in special funeral trains composed of converted hospital coaches. The bodies will then be forwarded to places of burial.

It is estimated that the bodies will arrive in the United States beginning next year at the initial rate of 1200 a month, increasing to about 18-900 monthly by the end of 1947.

The Army and Navy will begin at once to address next of kin of completely identified dead to obtain instructions for disposition of the bodies. The process will take some time, and the inquiries will be mailed as the records of the 356 temporary cemeteries overseas are completely verified.
Therefore, families of different deceased in the same neighborhoods, may receive such queries at widely separated times.

Further information may be had upon request to the Department Service Officer, the American Legion, Veterans Administration, Lexington, Kentucky.

"Railroads bring the world to my door!"

"A HOUSEWIFE THESE DAYS has to be a combination of Dictator, Diplomat, and Director of Supply."

"Yes, running a house is a big job—and it couldn't be done without the railroads. The fresh, wholesome food I feed my family, the clothes we wear, almost everything we use—all the good things we enjoy today—move on the railroads.
Why, we practically live out of a freight car!

"I like to think of the railroads as partners of mine—in the business of making this house the home I want it to be for my family."

The railroad which serves your community is an active partner of every individual and every business in town—and a home-town partner at that.

Wherever their tracks extend, the railroads are just as much a local, home-town business as the corner drugstore. For the railroads buy supplies locally, employ local people, own property locally —and pay local taxes on that property, in addition to Federal and state taxes. A sizable number of counties in this country receive half their tax money from the railroads alone!

Railroads pay their own way fully, and through their taxes they help support public education, public health, public safety, public highways—public services of every sort.

Railroads are intimately a part of every community they serve.

MAYKING BOY CONVALESCING IN COLORADO HOSPITAL

WILLIAM ADAMS

Buckley Field, Colo.
Dear Editor:

I hardly know how to write this but here it is. My name is William Adams and my home is at Mayking, Ky. My parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams of Mayking.

I am one of the thousands in the hospital and it gets very lonely here and to be so far from home, but we won't be here always, we will be home some day, that is for sure.

I hope that everybody there is still carrying on as they did before with the forming—I only wish I was there to help my dad with his farming.

The reason I am in the hospital is that I was flying with the Fifth Air Force on a B-24 which crashed into the mountain 74 miles west of Denver, Colorado.

It was exciting for a few moments. After it went into a tail-spin, that was all I knew until I woke up in the hospital a week that—that was two and a half months ago.

I was going to gunner school and would have been home for the Fourth of July and by God's speed I hope to be there any way.

I would like to hear from some of my old friends. I want to say hello to all of them anyway. If they want to write to me my address is:

Everybody out...Have a Coca-Cola

...time for food and friendly refreshment
